FILL AND BURST THE BALLOON– RULEBOOK

1. TEAM FORMATION

1. The game is played between two teams.
2. Each team must have 4–5 members.
3. Each team must select a captain before the game begins.
4. Teams must wear clearly different-coloured bibs or jerseys.
5. A referee and scorekeeper will supervise the match.

2. PLAYING AREA

1. The field must have clearly marked boundaries.
2. Each team will have a designated Base Zone.
3. Water balloons will be kept inside each team's Base Zone.

3. GAME DURATION

1. The match consists of three rounds, each lasting five minutes.
2. Teams will change sides after each round.
3. The referee's whistle will start and end every round.

4. HOW TO PLAY

1. Players must start from their respective Base Zones.
2. The round begins when the referee blows the whistle.
3. Players may collect water balloons from their team's supply.
4. Players may throw water balloons at opponents.
5. A hit counts only when the balloon bursts directly on an opponent's body.
6. Players may dodge incoming balloons.
7. Players must not tackle, push, hold, or obstruct opponents.
8. When the referee calls a hit, the scorekeeper will record the points.

9. Play continues until the referee signals the end of the round.

- Buckets or tubs
- Water supply
- Team bibs or coloured bands
- Cones or ropes for marking boundaries
- Whistle
- Stopwatch or timer
- Score sheet
- First-aid kit
- Waste bags or bins for balloon pieces

8. WINNING CONDITION

1. The scores from all three rounds will be added together.
2. Final Score = Round 1 Score + Round 2 Score + Round 3 Score.5. SCORING SYSTEM
4. Direct hit on the torso or back: 2 points.
5. Hit on an arm, leg, or shoulder: 1 point.
6. Successful catch before the balloon bursts: 3 points.
7. Hit on the head or face: minus 3 points. Deliberately aiming at the head or face is prohibited.
8. A balloon that touches a player but does not burst: 0 points.96. A balloon that bursts on the ground: 0 points.
9.The team with the higher total score after all three rounds will be declared the winner.

6. REFEREE AUTHORITY

1. The referee has the final decision on hits, penalties, and disputes during the match.
2. Players must accept the referee's decisions.
3. Arguments or intentional interference with officials may result in penalties or disqualification.

7. EQUIPMENT REQUIRED

• Water balloons

9. TIE-BREAKER

If both teams have the same final score, an additional round may be conducted to determine the winner. The referee will announce the duration and rules of the tie-breaker before it begins.

10. SAFETY RULES

1. Players must not aim at or deliberately throw balloons at an opponent's head or face.
2. Players must not throw balloons at very close range.
3. Pushing, tackling, grabbing, and physical fighting are prohibited.
4. Players must not deliberately aim at spectators, volunteers, or referees.
5. Balloons must not be overfilled; they should remain soft enough to burst safely.
6. Players must wear appropriate footwear because wet ground can become slippery.
7. Broken balloon pieces must be collected after the game.
8. A first-aid facility or designated first-aid person must be available at the venue.
9. The game must stop if weather or field conditions become unsafe.

11. DISQUALIFICATION

1. Deliberate physical aggression or dangerous conduct.
2. Repeatedly breaking safety rules or ignoring the referee's instructions.
3. Intentionally interfering with officials or the opposing team.
4. Any behaviour the referee considers seriously unsafe may result in immediate removal from the game.