UDGAM 20K6

Rulebook - Food Eating Challenge

1. About the Event

Food Eating Challenge is a fun competition where participants eat as much of the given food as possible within the time limit. The participant who finishes the highest quantity within the time limit wins.

2.Eligibility & Criteria

1. The event is open to all registered students with a valid ID card.
2. Participation is individual and subject to prior registration.
3. Participants must declare any food allergy or medical condition at the time of registration. Participants with such conditions are advised not to take part.
4. Each participant takes part at their own risk and must be physically fit.

3. Format

1. Participants will be seated at the table, with an identical quantity of food served to each person.
2. Eating begins only on the announcer's signal and stops immediately when the time ends.
3. If there are many participants, the event may be held in multiple rounds, and the winners of each round will compete in the final.

4.Rules of Eating

1. Participants must eat only from their own plate. Sharing, exchanging or passing food is not allowed.
2. Participants must stay seated at their position during the entire round.
3. Drinking water is allowed during the round.
4. Only food that is fully swallowed will be counted. Judges may check the participant's mouth at the end of the time limit.
5. Food that is dropped, wasted, hidden or thrown away will not be counted.
6. Participants must not use any trick or method that is unhygienic or unfair.

5. Scoring & Winner

1. The winner is the participant who finishes the highest number of food items (or the highest weight, as decided by the organisers) within the time limit.
2. Counting will be done by the volunteers and judges present at each table.
3. In case of a tie, a sudden-death round of 1 minute will be conducted between the tied participants.

6. Disqualification

- Vomiting or spitting out food during the round.
- Starting before the signal or continuing after the time ends.
- Misbehaviour or any violation of the rules above.
- Leaving the seat during the round without permission.