Rules and Regulations

1. Eligibility and Registration

- Team Roster: A team must consist of 4 main players only.
- Solo Entry: A player may register and play solo, but must pay the full registration fee for a complete squad.
- Account Level: All players must have an in-game account level of at least 35.
- Single Entry Limit: A player cannot register more than 1 team.

2. Communication and Schedule

- Primary Platform: WhatsApp is the primary communication platform.
- Captain's Duty: Team leaders or representatives must inform their team of any important announcements or updates.
- Tournament Format: The tournament schedule and points system will be made available on the Tournament WhatsApp Group.

3. Match Protocol and Attendance

- Reporting Time: Players must be seated 15 minutes before their slot.
- Slot Disputes: If someone is sitting in your slot, inform the management at least 1 minute before the start time.

4. Gameplay and In-Game Settings

- Skin Abilities: Gun skin abilities and attributes are enabled and may be used in the permitted areas during tournament matches.

5. Technical Requirements and Disconnections

- Network Stability: Players must ensure they have a stable internet connection.
- Disconnection Clause: If a player loses connection during a match, the organizers are not responsible.
- Power Supply: Participants should bring their own extension board.

6. Fair Play, Recording and Dispute Resolution

- Result Verification: Each player is responsible for taking screenshots of every match result.
- Match Recording: Team leaders may record their games as evidence for unavoidable circumstances, and to support fair gameplay and accurate points calculation.
- Hacking and Cheating: In case of hacking, the POV (Point of View) and death replay must be recorded and handed to the coordinator for investigation.
- Hacking Penalties: Any hacking, use of third-party modifications, scripts or bug exploits for an unfair advantage leads to immediate disqualification of the player and their entire team from the tournament.
