UDGAM 2026

RULEBOOK FOR SPOIL THE TSHIRT

1. The event is open to all students.
2. Each team can have a maximum of 3 participants.
3. One team member must fill the participation form before the deadline.
4. A bucket containing water, colour, and sponges will be provided to each team.
5. The game will be played between two teams: Attackers and Defenders. The roles of the two teams will be decided on the day of the event.
6. One member of each team must wear a white T-shirt. The other two members must protect their team's T-shirt while trying to spoil the opponent's T-shirt.
7. The match will be a knockout match played within the specified area.
8. Players must remain inside the designated playing area. Moving outside it will lead to disqualification.
9. Team members may block, shield, or deflect stains from reaching their Head Member.
10. No physical contact with opposing team members is allowed. Only maneuvering and dodging are permitted.
11. No objects other than those provided by the volunteers may be used.
12. The team whose T-shirt has the least colour at the end wins and moves to the next round.
13. The judges' decision will be final.
14. Any misbehavior may result in strict action against the team.
15. Bonus credit points, if any, will be disclosed on the event day.
16. For any discrepancy, the decision of the UDGAM team will be final.
